Optimist Creed

PROMISEYOURSELF

To be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind. To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet.

To make all your friends feel there is something in them.

To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true.

To think only of the best, to work only for the best, and expect only the best.

To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.

To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.

To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile.

To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others.

To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear, and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.

Sergeant At Arms

Subs Larry and Larry took over the fine show today beginning with an auction to win a McAfee gift certificate. Blanca won.

I was promptly fined for a Shameless self promotion for my visitor's new business. My IOU list was growing to over $5 but Wayne saved me by covering my tab ( I WILL BRING $$ TO LUNCH, I WILL BRING $$ TO LUNCH)

Everyone who bought a 50/50 ticket were asked to stand. All those seated...put in a buck.

Who put 100 pennies in to buy a 50/50?? Myron!!! ( I WILL BRING $$ TO LUNCH, I WILL BRING $$ TO LUNCH)

All those seated at the birthday, raise your hand if you actually have a September birthday. Only me and Don. All others paid up.

The proper fine was determined to be $5 for Bob Burkman being OCD And holding tighter to the bell than any president in CNO history. Bob commented it wasn't for lack of trying—Scott Langer nearly de-pantsed him once. (I would have paid $5 for that one—heehee!)

Happy Bucks the dollars were flying.

50/50 Drawing    495 Laurie Poeppelman last minute fine issued to Donna Huss for buying a 50/50 ticket but saying “I probably won’t win” not very optimistic...shame/shame.
