WEEKLY MEETING

Notes by Heather Craaybeek, Photos by Greg Griffin

Invocation

By Phather Phil

Heavenly Father, recently, somewhere someone lost their best friend. Be it a family member, a friend or even a stranger you never met, but admired from afar. Even though our faith is strong and we know they are in your loving arms, we miss them. Have us remember, those we loved don't go away. They walk beside us every day. Unseen, unheard but very near. Still missed, still loved and very dear. We don't wear their passing like sack cloth, but nestle them in the back of our minds. From there we can call them back when the mood or remembrance of them flashes in our mind. Smile and enjoy a time when they were with us and be thankful for the time we knew them. So Lord, Help us live our lives so that our friends will enjoy remembrances of our lives when it is our time to be with You. Amen!

PROMISEYOURSELF

To be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind. To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet.

To make all your friends feel there is something in them.

To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true.

To think only of the best, to work only for the best, and expect only the best.

To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.

To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.

To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile.

To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others.

To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear, and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.

Chris McApline your sign up sheet was left behind last week.

Karl Frydyrk was caught at Kroger running over a lil ol lady in a motorized grocery cart.

All year Fred has been parking along the hill, Fred there is no "Presidential parking area"

The last table in the back...what did you have for lunch? Chicken salad?!? While the rest of us enjoyed steak...that fine falls to Fred too.

Last week was the Educator of the year presentation. Gary Anderson always ran long, This year, Joe Madden was short.—we miss you Gary but not that much, Both pay up.

Gary Smiga there was a lovely article with praising your wife's success as the 1st mentor in our scholarship program—clearly nepotism.

Joan Cordonnier certainly wasn't the only one to buy a 50/50 ticket with quarters today but was the only to announce she has 4 left for Happy bucks...not anymore!

David Ladd and Gary Miller were charged with Ice Tea theft.

Bill Reiger—scott Langer award

Mike Bevis for referring to his guest as a CNO member "YEARS AND YEARS AGO" way to make him feel old!

Happy Bucks

Blanca got a chuckle when she began her $3 worth with "Once Upon a Time..." but gave a dollar for 3 year anniversary.

Judy DeMarco got to spend time with 8 mo old grandbaby

Julie Noeth (Walling) thanked Greg Griffin for the lovely lunch she was able to enjoy while NOT taking pictures and she's also looking forward to enjoying her 1st warm meal at the Installation dinner.

I gave a HAPPY IOU for the generosity of Bill & Kelly Stone for their hospitality in opening their home for the Summer Social. They are fantastic hosts!

50/50 Drawing Judy DeMarco 2 additional tickets were drawn for left over baskets from the golf outing and it's all it's irony one winner was....Vida McDowell

Fred was all excited to adjourn his final meeting and wouldn't you know it that elusive bell was missing

Summer Social 2015
