WEEKLY MEETING

Notes by Larry Lynde Photos by Greg Griffin

Invocation by Phather Phil

Heavenly Father, yesterday was the longest day of the year. But we weren't given any extra time. The extra daylight just made it seem that way. I heard that the Now generation was disappointed, for even they are thinking that instant gratification takes too long. When we put heart in place of time we build a memory that will last a life time for the kids and for us as well. Let heaven wait and bless the work we are doing. Even though there isn't one of us who doesn't want to go to heaven. We just don't want to be in a hurry to go.

Amen!

SPEAKER: Speaker was Karen Davis Critical Care Nurse at Children's Medical Center. Thankfully there are people like Karen doing this job. They work 24 hours a day everyday no holidays to care for critically sick children.

Sergeant At Arms Bob Burkman and Donna Huss

Fines and Happy Bucks, well the sargents had to make up for lost time and they did a great job of it. The table that was graced by Melissa Lucas got to pay for that privilege. If you have done Yoga you were fined for National Yoga day, seemed like that fine was a stretch. Joe and Mary Madden were fined, not sure about Mary but Joe was fined for wearing the wrong clubs shirt. Happy bucks were many wedding anniversary's I know I missed but included Denise O'Neal and Dave Kay

Optimist Creed

PROMISEYOURSELF

To be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind. To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet.

To make all your friends feel there is something in them.

To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true.

To think only of the best, to work only for the best, and expect only the best.

To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.

To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.

To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile.

To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others.

To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear, and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.
