

Margaret Barclay lived a life dedicated to helping others, particularly children. She spent 40 years in public education, the last 27 in the Centerville Schools, serving as a teacher, a university student teaching coordinator, Normandy Elementary Principal, and retiring as Principal at Magsig Middle School in 2000. The Optimist Oratorical Contest is named in her memory due to her selfless dedication and commitment to the youth of our community. Margaret's Noon Optimist accomplishments include being the second female President; the second member to become an International Vice President; CNO Co-Optimist of the Year; Lieutenant Governor; Ohio District Governor Honored; and the CNO Treasurer for many years. She was also an integral part of creating new Alpha and Junior Optimist Clubs in our schools, and an active member in both the CNO and Springboro Optimist Clubs. Margaret valued this community as well, serving as an Elder at Southminster Presbyterian Church, and a Charter Member of the Centerville Education Foundation.

THE OPTIMIST CREED

Promise Yourself

To be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind.

To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet.

To make all your friends feel there is something in them.

To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true.

To think only of the best, to work only for the best, and expect only the best.

To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.

To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.

To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile.

To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others.

To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear, and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.
